D. TAX WITHHOLDING INSTRUCTIONS

NOTE: Please consult your tax advisor before completing this section. You may be subject to the 10% early distribution penalty on the amount withheld and not converted. Under IRS rules, a conversion to a Roth IRA is treated for income tax purposes as a distribution of taxable amounts in the other IRA. IRS rules also require the custodian to withhold 10% of the amount transferred for federal income taxes unless no withholding has been elected. Please see IRS Publication 505, "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax" for more information.

CAUTION: Withholding income taxes from the amount converted (instead of paying applicable income taxes from another source) may adversely impact the expected financial benefits of transferring from another IRA to a Roth IRA (consult your financial advisor if you have a question regarding this). Because of this impact, by electing to convert to a Roth IRA, you are deemed to elect NO withholding unless you check the box below. In so doing, you acknowledge that you may be required to pay estimated tax and that insufficient payments of estimated tax may result in penalties.

- Withhold 10% for federal income tax.
